

Park Hill School District

IMAGE / CONTACT INFORMATION OPT-OUT DESIGNATION

IMAGE OPT OUT

Throughout the school year, the district or school might take pictures or video and release personal information about students for promotion. Examples might include but are not limited to:

- A special event or program at a school might be covered by a newspaper or television station, resulting in student interviews and pictures.
- Award-winning students might have their names and photos published in a local newspaper, a school newsletter, the districts “First Hand” e-newsletter, the districts “Park Hill Connection” newsletter or on Park Hill TV-Channel 18.
- The district or school might post pictures of school activities on web pages and social media.

If you do not want your child’s image or information used, see your school’s office. If a parent or guardian does not want their child’s image or information shared for this purpose, please contact your child’s school to complete the Park Hill School District Image/Contact Information Opt-Out form.

CONTACT INFORMATION OPT OUT

Many parent groups in the Park Hill School District publish school directories, or buzz books, so that parents can reach each other. The school provides contact information for these directories, including but not limited to names, addresses and telephone numbers.

If you do not want your child’s or your family’s contact information included, check the contact information opt-out box below.
